

Local radio is so bombarded with commercials that it is irritating to even try to listen to them. They seem to average about 50% of airtime to commercials which is not why we listen to radio